The Honorable William C. Goodloe
Washington State Supreme Court
Temple of Justice
Olympia, WA 98504

Dear Justice Goodloe:

As you are aware, this Commission has investigated the question of whether your 1984 election campaign committee complied with the laws concerning public disclosure requirements, i.e., Revised Code of Washington 42.17. The Commission concluded that the committee did not fully comply. You have acknowledged that your campaign committee's violations of the law are your legal responsibility, and that you have therefore violated Canon 2(A) of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

Canon 2(A) provides:

"(A) A judge should respect and comply with the law and should conduct himself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary."

Pursuant to JQCR 19, you are admonished to take appropriate steps to see that in the future any campaign committee acting on your behalf complies fully with applicable public disclosure laws.
