Ethics and Judging: Reaching Higher Ground: A Web-Based Course RE:

May 18, 2015 through July 3, 2015

Dear Participant:

Congratulations, on the successful completion of the abovementioned web based course. We are pleased to enclose your Certificate of Completion and hope this course was a positive experience.

Please note if you plan to seek Continuing Legal or Judicial Education credits this event may be considered a self-study event with the state in which you may be filing. Self-study (aka web-based) events in some states may only be considered for the web conference portion of the program. In this case there were 6 onehour events on Thursday of each week (spring break week is excluded). The National Judicial College follows standard CLE/CJE policies established when presenting web-based events such as this. While this course may be nationally recognized by most state CLE/CJE boards, commissions or bars, credit approval is subject to the state's specific regulations regarding eligible credits.

We look forward to your enrollment in any number of our courses as you continue your judicial education.

Sincerely,

Muziel M. Bartlett
